

Odor Control Filter (OCF)

The BMP, Inc. Odor Control Filter (OCF) is a carbon filter device, which when used in conjunction with the SNOUT™, screens out odors which may be present in a catch basin outfall pipe. The disposable filter cartridge simply fits into a permanent adapter attached on the anti-siphon vent pipe. The filter cartridge requires periodic replacement according to conditions.